

Together, Texans are fighting the opioid crisis.

One in four Texans has experienced an opioid overdose or knows someone who has. If you or someone you love is struggling with prescription opioids, treatment is available and recovery is possible.

WE CAN END THE OPIOID CRISIS

Texas Targeted Opioid Response is a public health initiative with a mission to save lives and provide life-long support to people with opioid and stimulant use disorders by providing access to prevention, integrated, treatment and recovery services.
